HAS FAILED. The Seven Dollar Hay Was In the

Mind of Some Political Schemer. Special to the Bee. COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 27.—The O io State ournal for the last two days has been ex-loiting a letter said to have been received by Steward Miller, of the Ohio penitentiary, from a Toronto, Canada, firm, C. Clark & In this letter an offer is made to deliver in

He further says that the letter is a pure regard for truth, than he has zeal in parti-sanship.

Mr. Seeds offers to take all the No. 1 timo-thy hay "C. Clark & Co." or any other firm can deliver at Buffalo at $7 and says he will sell it in New England for $14.

The present price of hay from Canada in Columbus is over $11 and local hay is worth $20 at any railroad station.

Some peculiar things about the letter are

Clark & Co., of Toronto, anada, the details of which were give, exclusively in the Bee of Saturday were give excussively in the Bee of Saturday last, has been fully exposed, except as to the identity of the perpetrators.

The Democratic state committee took the matter up and the following correspondence by wire resulted:

"C. Clark & Co., Commission Merchants,
Toronto, Canada.

"Can you, as advertised, ship me 20,000 tons of No. 1 timothy hay at $7, delivered here? Wire at my expense.

"W. A. TAYLOR. by wire resulted:

"W. A. TAYLOR,

The only reply to this was a note from the livestern Union Telegraph Co., as follows:
"W. A. Taylor, Columbus, O.
"Your telegram of yesterday to Chas. Clark & Co., Toronto, is undelivered. No one in their office. Have left notice to call for message.
"WESTERN UNION TEL. CO."
The next telegram was as follows:

The next telegram was as follows:

"Is the commission firm of C. Clark & Co. of your city, reliable? Wire immediate answer at my expense.

The reply was as follows:

"THE MAYOR." This knocked the bottom completely out of a nicely laid plan of the Rept blican committee. It had been arranged to send a copy of the C. Clark & Co., circuliar to farmers. The boot is on the other leg now and the Democratic committee will do the corres-ponding with the farmers. An effort is now being made to discover the author of this campaign fraud. The Republicans will disclaim it of course, and say they were imposed upon, but the snapigion will not down. The meanness of such a trick at so late a day in the campaign must be apparent.

Wm. Martin, of Defiance was in the city Tuesday on business.

In many places the Republicans are quietly circulating A. P. A. literature.

The saintly and perfect F. B. DeWitt, candidate for congress on the Republican ticket in the Fifth district, is the owner of four bundred acres of the bed of what was once the Antwerp reservoir, and he got it for the ridical only low price of $7 an acre.

Mrs. Ada Shelt, of Toledo, was a guest of her parents in this city last week.
